About Me

I am Mayank Kasana — Founder & CEO, Atiras, an innovator, author, and mentor committed to developing technology and leading national growth. Serving as the ATL Innovation Head of my school council and having collaborated with NITI Aayog, I spearhead projects that guide young minds and mold the future of innovation for India. I have authored 3 books, including my bestseller, "Getting into Programming", has enabled hundreds of learners to enter the programming world. I have created influential solutions like "Samudra Manthan 2.0" and world's first ambulance Hyperloop "Trividya-Loop", where technology meets creativity to solve everyday problems. With many national awards under my belt and a personal pledge to guide NGO students in the field of robotics, experienced in mentoring 200+ young tech enthusiasts, fostering India's next generation of innovators. I strive towards building a future where innovation benefits society at all levels.
